

Immediate Recruitment
Nationality Campaign Team Leader
Full-time, 1-year, renewable post

CRTD.A has launched its regional Arab Women's Right to Nationality Campaign for approximately a decade now. Over the past few years, the Nationality Campaign in Lebanon has developed in scope and has gradually included new and exciting initiatives namely a legal unit which seeks to provide advice and support to Lebanese women married to non-national men.

CRTD.A is now seeking to recruit a "Project Team Leader" for the Nationality Campaign in Lebanon.

Key tasks and responsibilities

1. Follow up on the implementation of the project activities, and making sure meeting the deadlines
2. Establish direct contacts with relevant authorities to communicate on critical issues related to the campaign
3. Advocating for new nationality law and executive circulars (by sector and by geographical location)
4. Organize regular meetings with Parliamentary blocks, jurists and legal experts
5. Issuing policy papers and communication material
6. Undertaking other tasks as required

Key competencies

1. At least three years of work experience in the field of project management
2. Extensive knowledge of overall gender and citizenship programs
3. Excellent communication, negotiation and facilitation skills
4. Familiarity with activities and team coordination
5. Excellent writing skills in Arabic and English

Deadline for application: 22 May 2011

Interested candidates should send a detailed CV + 3 references + letter of motivation to vacancy@crt-da.org.lb

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

No phone calls please.